

re-enrollment checklist

Use this checklist to help you collect the information you need to apply for a tax credit to lower your monthly costs, and re-enroll in coverage that meets your needs and fits your budget. BeWellnm is the only place where you may be eligible to receive discounts.

Keep your contact information up-to-date at www.healthcare.gov for all of the latest news, updates, and communications from your health insurance carrier.

What do I need to re-apply?

- Basic information. Names and dates of birth for each person in your household.
- Home mailing address. If someone in your household has a different home address, you'll need that, too.
- Social Security numbers. Enter each person's Social Security number. If you leave this blank, you may be asked to provide more information at a later time.
- Information about professional enrollment help. Did you get help from a broker, agent or enrollment counselor? If so, you'll enter some information about this person on your application.
- Immigration document information. Is anyone on your application a legal immigrant? If so, you'll be asked to provide information from immigration documents.
- How you file your taxes. If you file federal income taxes, you may be asked about your filing status and who you claim as a dependent on your taxes.
- Income information. Enter employer and income information for everyone in your household.
- For Native Americans: Please bring a Certificate of Indian Blood or Tribal Identification Card.

Marketplace Account Information

www.Healthcare.gov

Email: _____

Username: _____

Password: _____

Questions? Call 1.800.318.2596